

Aylestone Taxis – Customer Terms & Booking Policy

Operator: Aylestone Taxis Leicester Ltd

Registered Office / Main Customer Contact Address: 753A Aylestone Road, Leicester

Wolverhampton Licensed Satellite Office: 6 Walsall Street, Bilston

Aylestone Taxis Leicester Ltd provides private hire booking services. Depending on the booking and operating arrangements, journeys may be accepted and dispatched under the appropriate private hire operator licensing arrangements held with Leicester City Council and/or City of Wolverhampton Council.

Bookings

All journeys must be pre-booked through an authorised Aylestone Taxis booking channel. A booking is subject to vehicle and driver availability.

Customers should provide accurate pickup, destination, passenger and contact details. Where relevant, customers should also provide any special journey requirements when making the booking.

Fares and Payments

The fare or estimated fare provided at the time of booking may be based on the journey information supplied by the customer. Additional charges may apply where appropriate, including waiting time, parking, tolls, additional stops or material changes to the booked journey.

Payment may be made using the payment methods offered for the particular booking. Depending on the journey, payment may be collected directly or handled through the booking system.

Drivers

Drivers carrying out bookings are self-employed private hire drivers/subcontractors and are not employees of Aylestone Taxis Leicester Ltd.

Drivers may receive payment directly from passengers for some journeys, while other journeys may be paid by card or another approved payment method.

Cancellations

Customers should cancel a booking as soon as possible if the vehicle is no longer required.

A cancellation charge may apply where a driver has already been allocated or dispatched, has travelled towards the pickup point, has arrived at the pickup point, or where the cancellation is made too close to the booked pickup time.

Where a cancellation charge is collected in relation to a journey allocated to a driver, that cancellation payment may be passed to the driver.

No-Shows and Waiting Time

Customers should be ready at the agreed pickup time. Waiting charges may apply where a driver is required to wait beyond any applicable free waiting period.

If the customer cannot be contacted or does not attend the pickup point within a reasonable period, the booking may be treated as a no-show and a charge may apply.

Airport and Other Chargeable Locations

Airport bookings and journeys involving locations with parking, drop-off, pickup, toll or access charges may attract additional charges. These charges may be added to the journey price where applicable.

Delays

We aim to provide vehicles at the requested time, but pickup times are not guaranteed. Traffic, road closures, weather, incidents, previous passenger journeys and other circumstances outside our reasonable control may cause delays.

Customers travelling for flights, trains, appointments or other time-sensitive commitments should allow sufficient additional travelling time.

Customer Conduct

Passengers must behave appropriately and must not threaten, abuse, distract or endanger a driver. A driver may refuse or terminate a journey where they reasonably believe that continuing it would present a safety risk.

Customers may be responsible for reasonable cleaning or damage costs caused by them or members of their party.

Lost Property

Customers should check that they have all belongings before leaving the vehicle. We will make reasonable efforts to assist with lost property enquiries, but we cannot guarantee that an item will be recovered.

Complaints and Contact

Customers who have a concern about a booking or journey should contact Aylestone Taxis as soon as reasonably possible and provide sufficient booking details for the matter to be investigated.
